Description

TANDEM AXLE UTILITY TRAILER

Bigger and better. The tandem axle steel trailer also comes in powdercoat and galvanized finish. The huge bed sizes mean you can do just about anything with this option - and bring everything with you.

This is the ideal option for landscape, maintenance, and contractors. With the range of optional features available the tandem trailer can be customized to fit into your workflow just right. Get a side entry bi-fold gate to easily access different equipment without having to unload the entire trailer.

Get in touch with the dealer nearest you to discuss what options and accessories are right for you or your business.
